The boy who carried an entire team.

It was just another ordinary afternoon for a playful boy from the small riverside community of Parauá. Until an attempted hanging took a family by surprise. Weak, carried in desperation by his father and with no basic healthcare unit nearby, Thiago was hurriedly taken to the nearest aid point from his home: the Brazil by Lives team.

Time was against them. Our team provided first aid while taking him by ambulance to Manaus. Part of the volunteers stayed taking care of the family, who had stayed by the river's edge. After kilometers and kilometers of travel, 3 hours of displacement and more time for human care, thankfully Thiago was reborn and carried everyone's life with more faith, hope and love.
